4 — Wise has a background of association with Monterey planning and with Renewal Director Chang.
5 — In the shopping center fight, Weinberg and Wise sided with the renewal agency.
6 — When Old Town Development got off to a successful start in its planning, the agency brought Weinberg back to Monterey.
7 — The return of Weinberg and Wise led to a new organization, Custom House Associates, being formed.
8 — Despite protests that no favoritism has been shown, the renewal staff clearly has been warmer to Weinberg and his friends than it has to the Old Town group.

L.A. Resident Awarded $160,000 From Estate

SAN FRANCISCO (P) — Mrs. Gladys Stevens, a Los Angeles Negro, has been awarded an estimated $160,000 from the estate of Ernest L. Torregano. He led a distinguished civic and legal career here for 42 years as a white man.

Superior Judge Byron Arnold declined to rule on Mrs. Steven's request to be declared Torregano's daughter.

Indians Okay U.S. Offer for Lost Land

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Attorneys for Southern California's Mission Indians have reported overwhelming approval of the government's offer of 47 cents an acre for lands taken from them a century ago.

Final returns of balloting held last weekend were tabulated in Los Angeles and San Diego and showed 1,559 in favor to only 354 opposed.
