BP RETAINED LIABILITY

REVISION

2.3(f) All necessary costs and expenses incurred by Purchaser to reduce workplace personnel exposure to lead and lead compounds to levels at or below the "permissible exposure levels" set by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration ("OSHA"). Purchaser agrees to take all measures necessary to so reduce such exposure levels as soon as reasonably possible, and further agrees to provide to Seller a written certification upon completion of such measures stating that the workplace personnel exposures are in fact at or below the OSHA permissible exposure levels. Seller shall retain additional Liability under Section 2.3(a) for all claims in any manner relating to or arising from workplace exposure levels of lead and lead compounds for the additional time period after the Closing Date until all measures required under this Section 2.3(f) are fully completed.
