Subject: Info Regarding Gov. Scott FL Keys Aerial Tour

All,

This morning, Governor Scott is driving from Pensacola to Mobile, Alabama to join Vice Admiral Karl Schultz and members of the U.S. Coast Guard for an aerial tour on a C-130 over the Florida Keys to assess damage from Hurricane Irma. The plane will briefly land in Key West to drop off Coast Guard damage assessment teams before moving to Opa-locka this afternoon. More details about the Governor's schedule will be released this morning.

For additional media information, please contact the Coast Guard at D7CGIrma@gmail.com.
