Gentlemen:

Re: Herman Hermanson - Employee,
Libby, Montana

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of September 22, 1967, addressed to our offices in Chicago.

The Royal Indemnity Company will, of course, stand behind any contract of insurance issued to your company.

However, your letter is the first information we have had concerning the claim of Mr. Hermanson, so we would appreciate receiving full information regarding the claim made by Mr. Hermanson and how he has initiated this. The sooner we can advise our compensation attorneys in Montana, the better preparation we can make for whatever proceedings are eventually held before the Industrial Board of that State.

Very truly yours,

R. D. McIntyre
