Hi Scott,

Sorry so slow to respond, what a busy few weeks it has been.

August open dates are 8/18, 8/23, 8/30. I can pass along September dates too if that works better for you? I really would love to come to the city if that works for you?

Based on your signature line it looks like you are wearing a few hats! I am looking forward to hearing about your adventures since the beginning of the year!

Mandy,
Congratulations on the new job! I am very happy for you!

I'd be delighted to see you. Please suggest some days in August that would work for you for lunch. I have access to my car and can easily swing by Alexandria from Main Interior. It's only a 15 minute drive.

Thanks,
Scott

Scott, it has been way too long! I hope all is going well. I really want to hear about your adventures since January!

I also want to let you know that my new job finally came through. I start August 6th as the Director of the new Planning and Budgeting Products Division within OCFO at USPTO. I am pretty happy that I waited it out (even though it took forever).

I assume you are mostly working downtown, so maybe sometime in the new month I can come down either for lunch or for happy hour and meet you closer to your office? I am sure you are very busy, but let me know what works for you.

Best,

Mandy
