MOTOR MAKING BOSS—Carl J. Andersen holds coil which is going into a motor being made at new $3,000,000 General Electric plant at Monterey Road and Stone Ave. Andersen manages the plant.

"I was whisked out of Italy when Mussolini got huffy about every- one who was not Italian," Ander- sen says.

"It developed that neither Hitler nor Mussolini were liking people like me."

Andersen returned to Lynn, where he again took up the supervisory and planning job.

General Electric's plan to ex- pand West Coast operations brought Andersen to California. He was born in Boston, Mass.

Sept. 12, 1895, and was schooled in Boston and in Gloucester. His family includes a wife and 25-year-old daughter, who is married. His affiliations are the Masonic Lodge, Rotary Club and San Jose Chamber of Commerce.
