Dear Chris:

In re: v. Sherwin Williams

I am forwarding a copy of a letter recently received from John J. Larsen, Jr., the attorney for . The request is that future payments be made directly to - the attorney is claiming no additional fees nor expenses from the benefits. A copy of this letter is being sent Tony Colangelo.

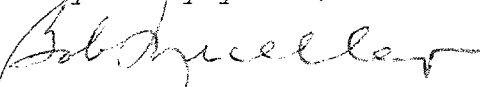

You had raised the question in a telephone conversation whether the widow might successfully petition for an additional lump sum payment. The only provision in the Act is within Section 7(g), copy of which I attach. It restricts a petition for lump sum to a filing within 18 months after the decedent's death so would not qualify within that restriction.

If the widow remarries, she is entitled to 2 years compensation benefits, but any further right is then extinguished Section 7(a) another obligation that hasn't been discussed is that of the burial expense per Section 7(f), a copy of which is attached. No mention nor claim has been made for that by the widow or her attorneys. There could be an obligation to the Special Fund per this same subsection.

With this letter then I am closing our file, enclosing statement for services.

With best regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Robert L. Mueller
