Johan,
Sorry, this took longer than I anticipated, but here is a draft of the SD quarterly summary. The articles are in no particular order at this stage. A couple of comments:

- * I think we should get Patsy Clegg's OK for the Shanghai benzene study piece - chased her last Friday but nothing yet
- * I haven't included the SD performance update as the Q4 data will be out in the next couple of weeks and I think this will call for a few changes, mainly in the env area.

All feedback welcome - in case you need to discuss this I'm in my office most of today though in several meetings/on calls. Hook up with you later on the SD teleconf.

Best regards,
Heather Rogers
