No need for thanks....You're welcome. It was my pleasure to visit with your group.

Hi Jim,

We had a lovely weekend with (b) (6) and they asked me how the solar meeting went. I told them great - Jim had all of the relevant staff plus he gave us more than an hour and answered our questions and told us to get back to them with ideas and issues. Couldn't have asked for more. But after I told them this I realized I never said thank you for the meeting.

Jim, thank you so much, it was greatly appreciated and the meeting from our view couldn't have gone better and we will be following up. I hope things are going well and that you aren't working yourself too hard.

Take care,
Katie
