War Surplus Sale Waste Criticized

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(AP)—The House Military Committee will begin hearings Tuesday on legislation to set up a board to supervise the disposition of surplus government-owned materials.

Announcing this today, Representative Harness, Republican of Indiana, author of the legislation, told of getting reports of "out-right destruction or damaging of equipment and parts which, if true, would make us wonder what we're buying war bonds for."

IS BEING WITHHELD FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

IN A DEMOCRATIC REPUBLIC, HE SAID, IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT THE PEOPLE BE INFORMED.

The Senator also put in the Record excerpts from a British magazine, "The Nineteenth Century and After," which said the Yugoslav Partisans probably were an asset to the Germans and that Mihailovic had an incomparably bigger following than Tito. The article said the British Broadcasting Corporation continued to magnify the exploits of the Partisans and to ignore those of the regulars under Mihailovic.

British Press Favored

"CERTAINLY," WHEELER ASSERTED, "THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE GETTING NO TRUE PICTURE OF WHAT IS GOING ON IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES SUCH AS IS PUBLISHED IN THE BRITISH MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS."

He said he was bringing the Yugoslav matter to the attention of his colleagues because "without apparent reason we seem to be continually changing our alignments with our Allies."

One day, he said, we heard that Tito is to be recognized and the next it is to be Mihailovic.
