A dark, grainy, high-contrast black and white photograph of a person in a trench coat, possibly a detective, standing in a dark environment. The person is wearing a hat and a long coat, and is holding a flashlight. The image is heavily shadowed, with only the person's figure and the flashlight beam visible against a dark background. The text "FBI" is visible in the top left corner.

1. The first of these is the fact that the British Government has been unable to secure the necessary cooperation from the United States Government in the matter of the investigation of the activities of the British Government in the United States. This is a serious matter, and it is one which the British Government must face.
