last evening in the Stanford Memorial Church. Dr. D. Charles Gardner, Stanford chaplain, officiated in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

Miss Truax was attended by Miss Edith Huleu as maid of honor. Cellan Curtis of Burlingame acted as best man. The bride's gown was of powder blue georgette, worn with a matching hat and a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner rose buds. Miss Huleu was in dark blue and carried yellow roses.

After an informal reception at the bride's home, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell left for a wedding trip, keeping their destination secret. They will be at home the last of the month at 740 Homer avenue.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Jewell are graduates of the Palo Alto Union High School. Mr. Jewell later attended Stanford University and his bride a junior college.

PENIN

"Hostess" ICE C

HERE are the reasons why this new ice cream is so satisfying . . . why it gives a new taste thrill.

In the first place, consider the ingredients . . . . . extra quantities of rich pasteurized cream and fresh ranch eggs . . . . . pure cane sugar and true fruit flavors.

Another important factor is the skill and exp in blending the care tak process.
