YOU CAN expect Anaconda White Lead to make whiter whites! A FREE test will definitely prove it to you.

Anaconda is pure. Electrolytic dry white lead—the purest kind known—is thoroughly ground in the finest grade of pure linseed oil, assuring you of a reliable purity that carries on to the finished paint. This whiter lead also brings cleaner tints.

Prove Anaconda superiority—send for a sample and compare it side by side with the kind you're now using. You'll see the difference at a glance. Yet you'll be glad to know Anaconda costs no more than other quality leads.
