

...the installed funds to engage her own attorney and would do so if granted release from the County Jail. Judge Deoito released her on her own recognizance.

In another action involving the two children, who are now in an Alameda house under supervision of the Oakland Detention Home, Martin Stromberg, estranged husband, agreed to pay a monthly bill of $45 for the upkeep of Bernice, 2, and Sylvia, 7. That case was put over until October 22.

Meanwhile, the Strombergs agreed to contact Solano County authorities over a child custody case pending at Fairfield, which was postponed a week yesterday morning due to the failure of Mrs. Stromberg to appear because of incarceration here.

Executive committee members, Cecil Nesper, and committee are: Hazeltine, Fred Henderson, Forest Hides.

Series are to be of Post 5 pasteur, Biggs, Stanley Macchell.

Blackie: "The news is encouraging, Whitey—but I'm waiting for a definite sign that normal times are returning."

Whitey: "You'll have that when there's a more plentiful supply of all good things."

Naturally, it will be some time before a full scale return of BLACK & WHITE is possible—because this famous Scotch cannot be made in a hurry. Meanwhile, we are doing everything within our power to distribute the available supply as fairly as possible.
