ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1.—Qualifications for Membership

Any individual, partnership, corporation or division of a corporation actively engaged in the operation of a chemical manufacturing plant within the United States of America, and selling to others a substantial portion of the chemicals produced in such plant, is eligible to membership in this Association.

Section 2.—Application for Membership

Application for membership in the Association shall be made in writing on a form approved by the Board of Directors which shall be signed by the applicant, and by two members of the Association as sponsors, and shall state: (1) (a) if the applicant is an individual: his name and address; (b) if the applicant is a partnership: the name and address of each partner; (c) if the applicant is a corporation (or a division thereof): its name, address and place of incorporation; (2) the locations of the applicant's chemical plants in the United States of America; (3) the kinds of chemical products manufactured by applicant; (4) that the applicant regularly sells a substantial portion of the chemicals produced by it in the United States to individuals, partnerships or corporations not affiliated with applicant; and (5) that applicant accepts and agrees to abide by the Certificate of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association.

Section 3.—Election of Members

The Membership Committee shall consider each application for membership and submit to the Board of Directors its report on the eligibility of the applicant. After the Membership Committee shall have reported that an applicant is eligible for membership, such applicant may be elected to membership by a majority vote of the members present at any meeting of the Association at which there is a quorum, or, if thirty (30) days' written notice has been given to all members of the Association of the applicant to be acted upon, and no objection to such applicant has been received by a majority vote of all members of the Board of Directors. Following election to membership, notice thereof shall be mailed to the applicant by the Secretary and upon payment of the entrance fee and annual dues the applicant shall become a member of the Association.

Section 4.—Withdrawal

Any member may, upon payment of unpaid obligations to the Association, withdraw from membership at any time by giving at least thirty days' advance written notice thereof to the President or Secretary.

Section 5.—Suspension or Expulsion

Any member, after having been provided with a copy of the charges against him and granted a reasonable opportunity to be heard, may, by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the Board of Directors, be suspended for a limited time or expelled from membership for violation of the By-Laws or for conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the Association.

Section 6.—Termination

The membership of any member, and all rights and privileges thereof, shall immediately terminate in the event such member shall cease to meet the qualifications for membership prescribed in Section 1 of this Article. It shall be the duty of each such member to give prompt notice in writing to the President or Secretary of any change in ownership or activities affecting the qualifications for membership of such member.

ARTICLE III

ENTRANCE FEES, DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

CMA 175083

Section 1.—Entrance Fees

Each member-elect upon receipt of notice of election shall as a condition of membership, pay an entrance fee of $100.00, in addition to annual dues as herein provided.

Section 2.—Annual Dues

The annual dues for each member shall be $200.00, payable June 1 of each year in advance; provided, however, that the dues of any member elected subsequent to December 1 shall be $100.00, for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Section 3.—Assessments

The Board of Directors may, by affirmative vote of two-thirds of all of the Directors, levy an assessment upon members, in addition to the annual dues, to pay the necessary expenses of carrying out any work in harmony with the purpose of the Association. The amount of the assessment to be paid by each member shall be determined by the Board of Directors with due regard to benefits to be derived therefrom and the resources of the member affected thereby.
