Mandy would be your best bet in the interim.

Understand. Thanks. We have an issue with refrigerants and California and the EPA SNAP program, which fits squarely in the vein of federalism does not mean CA sets national policy. California is moving on regulations (comments are due on their latest draft this Friday) so hopefully, first week of December would work out – fingers crossed. Thanks again.

No promises on Bill in Dec as he's about to be swamped, but we can definitely get you in at some point soon.

Kevin,

Great to meet you as well today. I will speak with Mandy's team and figure out if that would be possible to arrange a meeting in the first week of December with Bill.

Have a great afternoon!

Stephen

Subject: Meeting

Good to meet you today. I would look forward to meeting and discussing our issues. I am in DC this week and then again the first week of December. I also would like to get on Wehrum's schedule. It looks like he will be confirmed this week. I reached out to Mandy on that, but wasn't sure if you could help direct me to the right person to talk to. Thanks again and look forward to discussing our issues and any help you can provide.
