> It is with profound sadness that we at Faith & Politics share with the 2018 TN- AL pilgrimage participants who are not yet aware of the unexpected health event and passing of Curtis Etherly, a great friend to FPI and our community. We were in prayer for him and his loved ones, since have joined in grieving the sudden and tremendous loss with his family, friends and the community.

> Our friends are Coca Cola have made us aware of information regarding his memorials early next week and his family. I am providing that link below and a photograph of our time together in Selma as we remember Curtis.
