Hi Scott

The 29th works fine for both myself and Karen Vargas, our AIS Program Coordinator. It would work better for me if we could meet mid-day or in the afternoon as I have a meeting in Boise all day Tuesday the 28th but if it needs to be in the morning I should be able to accommodate that.

We'll put together a list of those desired actions and get that to you shortly. Thanks again for your support and assistance!

Hi Jon,

It looks like we are zeroing in on the morning of November 29 to meet with Lake Mead folks. Does that work for you? If not, we'll shift the meeting around to later that day.

In the meantime, can you please send me a list by the end of this week of specific actions you'd like Lake Mead NRA to do more of or differently when it comes to invasive mussels?

Thanks,

Scott

Hi Jon,

We are having an internal meeting here in DC tomorrow to help tee up the meeting we hope to schedule with you at the end of November in Nevada.

In preparation for that, would you be able to send me the portions of Nevada's applicable regulations or law that empowers you to enforce boat inspection/decontamination? The reason I ask is that at least some of our lawyers back here are unaware that Nevada has strong state authority in this area. My goal is to be able to show our folks that the state law and regs are plenty adequate, and that it is our job as feds to help Nevada enforce their rules more effectively by being better partners with the state.

Thanks,

Scott
