Dutch Boy Red-Lead is TOUGH

1. The first step is to identify the problem. This is often the most difficult part of the process, as it requires a clear understanding of the issue at hand.

2. Once the problem is identified, the next step is to gather information. This involves researching the problem and understanding its causes and effects.

3. After gathering information, the next step is to develop a plan. This involves identifying the steps that need to be taken to solve the problem.

4. The final step is to implement the plan. This involves putting the plan into action and monitoring the results.
