

1 those institutions?

2 A. Yes, I met him there. He was one of my most
3 respected teachers.

4 Q. Did you meet or converse with Dr. Hyman
5 thereafter?

6 A. I have seen him on occasion but I believe he's
7 now in Israel.

8 Q. Do you recall any conversations with Dr.
9 Hyman in relation to chloracne?

10 A. No. I really don't. If I did, I have
11 forgotten -- I may have mentioned this but I don't
12 really recall any serious conversations with Dr.
13 Hyman.

14 Q. Is Dr. Hyman a dermatologist?

15 A. He's a dermatologist and a highly respected
16 dermatopathologist.

17 Q. If we move down to the next portion of
18 your vitae, I notice that you are certified as a
19 diplomate of the American Board of Dermatology and 20 Syphology?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. How is one certified as a diplomate?

23 A. One takes three years of postgraduate training
24 in dermatology following their internship and then
25 submits to an examination by the American Board of

1 Q. Was it your usual routine to prepare such
2 trip reports?

3 A. Yes, it was.

4 Q. And to whom would you present such
5 reports?

6 A. To the chief of the division and sometimes I
7 would be permitted to transmit a report to the State
8 Health Department or it would go through the chief
9 of the division.

10 Q. Can you recall if when you prepared the 11 trip report you transmitted it to anyone other than 12 the chief of the division?

13 A. I don't recall, I don't recall.

14 Q. Was the chief of the division when you
15 prepared your report James Townsend or someone else?

16 A. I don't believe it was Dr. Townsend I think
17 that -- it might have been Dr. Magnuson but I'm not 18 sure.

19 Q. When you say Dr. Magnuson, is that Dr.
20 Harold Magnuson?

21 A. Yes. We had a succession of chiefs.

22 Q. When you made your first trip with Dr.
23 Schwartz, do you recall what your title was at that
24 time?

25 A. Assistant surgeon.
