MAE E. MARSDEN, Administratrix of the Estate of JAMES MARSDEN SS #154-18-9776, Petitioner,

v.

G.A.F. CORPORATION,

Respondent.

AMENDED

APPEARANCES:

Gary W. Boguski, Esquire for Jan R. Evans, Esquire — Attorney for Petitioner

Leigh Buggeln, Esquire for Lawrie, Jennings & Buggeln, Esquires — Attorney for Respondent

A Dependency Claim Petition having been filed claiming compensation under R.S. 34:15-7 et seq., as amended and supplemented and an Answer having been filed, and the parties having appeared before me, Hon. William D. Hill, Judge of Compensation at the Division of Workers' Compensation, 400 Market Street, Camden, New Jersey on June 13, 1978 and testimony having been presented on the issues involved, I find and determine as follows:

1. Decedent, James Marsden for several years prior to January 11, 1972, was exposed to asbestos and various environmental irritants as a set up man, which exposure precipitated and/or aggravated pulmonary asbestosis with secondary emphysema.

A Judgment was entered December 4, 1972 by the Hon. Robert W. Page, ordering 100% total disability.

As a consequence of Decedent's deteriorating pulmonary involvement, Mr. Marsden eventually died on February 2, 1978, which death is deemed to be compensable.

2. Respondent had due and timely notice and actual knowledge thereof.

3. Decedent's wages were $165.00 per week, giving rise to rate for one dependent of 50% (percent) of wages or $82.50.

4. I specifically find Mae E. Marsden (born November 9, 1926) to be a full dependent at the time of his demise.

5. STATEMENT OF AWARD.

ASSESSED AGAINST RESPONDENT:

Full Dependency of widow, Mae E. Marsden, from February 2, 1978 to September 18, 1986 (inclusive) or 450 weeks at $82.50 per week totalling	$37,125.00
After September 18, 1986, Mae E. Marsden is awarded full dependency benefits at the rate of $82.50 per week through her widowhood, subject to a reduction of said weekly amount by her earnings as reflected in the statutes.
The Respondent is to be credited with overpayments of compensation benefits from the date of death to May 24, 1978 at the rate of $18.50 per week totalling $296.00. This credit resulted from the payment of total and permanent disability benefits beyond the date of death (February 2, 1978) to the estate of James Marsden at the higher rate of $101.00 per week. That higher rate less the dependency rate mentioned herein results in the above mentioned $18.50 weekly excess.
Respondent is directed to reimburse the widow, Mae E. Marsden the statutory maximum of the funeral allowance of	$ 750.00
(Due to the fact that there are insufficient accrued benefits with which to cover Petitioner's costs, I order a front end deduction of $2.50 per week into the future until all Petitioner's costs are covered.)
Dr. Victor Digilio, for his examination and report	$ 50.00
Jan R. Evans, Esquire, Petitioner's attorney, counsel fees	$ 360.00
Stenographic fees	$ 25.00

ASSESSED AGAINST PETITIONER:

Dr. Victor A. Digilio, for his examination and report	$ 50.00
Dr. Charles Brennan, for his report	$ 25.00
Jan R. Evans, Esquire, counsel fees	$ 240.00
Jan R. Evans, Esquire (reimbursement for hospital records)	$ 7.00

Pursuant to such findings, Judgment is entered accordingly.

Pursuant to R.S. 34:15-64, as amended, it is directed that amounts to be deducted for the Petitioner's expenses are to be paid to the persons entitled to the same, the remainder to be paid directly to Petitioner.
