The Share

The DaimlerChrysler shares are issued as registered shares that can be traded directly on all stock markets. Registered shares are mandatory in the United States. The share register, which henceforth is to be maintained by DaimlerChrysler AG, contains both the names and the addresses of shareholders. This will enable DaimlerChrysler to maintain an ongoing dialogue with shareholders and keep them regularly informed of developments at the group. People wishing to remain anonymous can simply register the name of the bank in which the security is held.
