

To: Jackson, Ryan[jackson.ryan@epa.gov]
From: Amy Harder
Sent: Mon 10/9/2017 9:44:34 AM
Subject: The Hunger Games of America's electricity

To: Jackson, Ryan[jackson.ryan@epa.gov]
From: Hugo Gurdon
Sent: Fri 8/4/2017 7:10:44 PM
Subject: Re: Looking forward to it

Ryan,

Thanks for your quick response. As I mentioned, Washington Examiner is launching a new energy and environment newsletter in September, and we'd love to start with the splash of an exclusive interview with Mr Pruitt. If there is a time in the first week of Sept after Labor Day that would be perfect. If you can let me know of a convenient day and time between the 7th and the 11th of Sept, our editors and reporters will be there.

Connected with this newsletter launch, we're also planning an energy and environment event in Washington for the following month, to which we'd bring an invited audience of approx 150 policy professionals. If Mr Pruitt would be our keynote speaker, either delivering a speech or doing a sit down interview on stage with our staff, that would be excellent.

Both the Sept interview (which we'd run in print, and online with video) and the DC event would be perfect opportunities for Mr Pruitt to get his message out. Washington Examiner is an ideal platform for the discussion of conservative policy ideas, as we have millions of readers willing to give Republican and conservative politicians a fair and sympathetic hearing.

Finally, I pass along Mr Anschutz's regards, and thank you for your help in this.

Regards,

Hugo Gurdon

On Fri, Aug 4, 2017 at 2:32 PM, Jackson, Ryan <jackson.ryan@epa.gov> wrote:

Thanks for the outreach. Happy to coordinate.

---

Ryan Jackson
Chief of Staff
U.S. EPA

Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy

--

Hugo Gurdon,
Editorial Director,
Washington Examiner.
202-459-4941 (office)
202-255-7760 (cell)