Dear Ms. Curry:

Enclosed is my reply to Dr. Brunekneef's comments on my paper, "Developing an Air Quality Standard for Lead from Community Studies," which appeared in the May 1982 issue of ES&T. Please contact me at (302)366-3951 if you have any questions.

Your patience and assistance in this matter are appreciated.

Very truly yours,

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER

The undersigned, with the consent of all authors, hereby transfers, to the extent that there is copyright to be transferred, the exclusive copyright interest in the above cited manuscript (subsequently referred to as the "work") to the American Chemical Society, effective if and when the work is accepted for publication by ACS and subject to the following:

- The undersigned author retains the right to revise, adapt, prepare derivative works, present orally, or distribute the work provided that all such use is for the personal noncommercial benefit of the undersigned and is consistent with any prior contractual agreement between the undersigned and his/her employer.
- In all instances where the work is prepared as a "work made for hire" for an employer, the employer whose authorized agent signs below retains the right to revise, adapt, prepare derivative works, publish, reprint, reproduce, and distribute the work provided that all such use is for the promotion of its business enterprise and does not imply the endorsement of the American Chemical Society.
- Whenever the American Chemical Society is approached by third parties for individual permission to use, reprint, or republish specified articles (except for classroom use, library reserve, or to reprint in a collective work) the undersigned author's or employer's permission will also be required.
- No proprietary right other than copyright is claimed by the American Chemical Society.
- For works prepared under U.S. Government contract, the American Chemical Society recognizes the Government's prior nonexclusive, royalty-free license to publish, translate, reproduce, use, or dispose of the published form of the work, or allow others to do so for U.S. Government purposes.

This agreement must be signed by an individual author or, in the case of a "work made for hire," by an authorized agent of the employer. If this work was prepared under a contract with the U.S. Government, the undersigned must so indicate below.

If the submitted manuscript was prepared under U.S. Government contract, state contract number (see Section E): _____
