PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION

STATE COMPENSATION INSURANCE FUND, a defendant herein, petitions for reconsideration of the ORDERS (Vacating Order of Dismissal) (Substituting Party Applicant) and (Returning to Calendar) upon the following grounds:

1. That by such Orders, the Commission acted without and in excess of its powers.

2. That the evidence does not justify the Findings of Fact.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The aforesaid ORDERS, by which this defendant has been aggrieved, were dated (and presumably made) May 12, 1964 and received by this defendant on May 20, 1964. May 12, 1964 was some seven days prior to the date on which this defendant's ANSWER TO PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION and/or MOTION TO SET

CONTENTIONS

In addition to the contentions set forth in defendant's said Answer and incorporated herein, this defendant strongly contends that your Honorable Commission erred in the exercise of jurisdiction in the making of said ORDERS.

Defendant also contends that there is inequity in setting aside dismissal of only certain defendants while allowing prior dismissals to stand unvacated. This is not stating that it would have been just and equitable to vacate all dismissals, but merely in emphasis of the unjustice in vacating any of the dismissals.

DISCUSSION

Applicant's hybrid petition (in legal contemplation) was either a Petition for Reconsideration or a Petition to Reopen. It met the requirements of neither.

Labor Code Section 5903 sets forth the grounds upon which a petition for reconsideration may be made and further provides "and no other /ground/."

Applicant's petition did not mention a single one of any such grounds and cannot validly be treated as a petition for reconsideration.

Assuming that applicant intended his petition as one to reopen, Labor Code Sections 5803 and 5805 then appear to be the governing provisions supplemented by the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (Section 10711).

Section 10711 of said rules requires that petitions to been the "Executrix of the Estate" of the deceased employee constitute good cause to reopen.

Anderson vs. Superior Court, 187 Cal. 95 shows that:

> "IT IS THE DUTY OF THE PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF A DECEASED PLAINTIFF TO HAVE PENDING LITIGATION BROUGHT TO TRIAL WITHIN THE STATUTORY PERIOD."

Laches and lack of diligence for over 18 months can hardly be an excuse for good cause. Although the Commission has stated its belief that the decedent's heirs should not be penalized because of the failure or inability of employee's attorneys to ascertain and advise the Commission of his death, such attorneys by letter of October 8, 1962 advised the Commission that the employee "...has been confined to Brookside Hospital seriously ill and will be unable to attend the hearing on October 11, 1962." The man died FOUR DAYS after the date scheduled for hearing and the attorneys, seven days before the death, knew that the man was in the named hospital. The decedent's executrix had a duty to have the pending litigation brought without waiting 18 months to make an appearance.

In passing, two items are worth mentioning:

1. The fatally defective petition shows neither that Jacqueline Clancey qualified nor, if so, is still acting as an Executrix. Notwithstanding the opening paragraph of said petition it nowhere even states that she is a daughter or heir of the decedent.

2. There is not even an attempt to show an excuse for the attorneys failure to timely object to the Notice of Intention action and concludes the rights of the parties in that particular action; Dowling vs. Polack, 18 Cal. 626. A dismissal for delay in or want of prosecution is not a judgment on the merits but rather a refusal to hear and determine on the merits; Bell vs. Solomons, 162 Cal 105. But, such a dismissal deprives the court of jurisdiction to hear or determine any motion unrelated to the dismissal; Lord vs. Garland (1946) 27 Cal.2d 840.

Once lost, jurisdiction cannot be regained even by stipulation of the parties; Sauer vs. Superior Court, 74 Cal.App.580.

Aside from the power conferred by Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the trial court cannot vacate its decision, once it is made, on grounds of judicial error. Thus, where the record shows that there is no mere mistake or inadvertence on the part of the trial court, and that an order of dismissal was the order intended to be made, an appellate court will not vacate that order; Hunt vs. United Artists (1947) 79 Cal.App.2d 619, 625.

In the instant matter, there had been several Notices of Intent to Dismiss and quite obviously the actual Dismissals were not made by mere mistake or inadvertence on the part of the trial court. If she, in fact, has legal status to do so, Jacqueline Clancy is not prevented from filing her own application for hearing on the merits on the same cause as shown by the Olwell case (supra).

Mrs. Clancy fails to meet either the requirements for a petition for reconsideration or the requirements for a petition to reopen.

The trial tribunal having made its judicial determination to dismiss the case lost jurisdiction (save as otherwise provided for good cause) to reopen the matter.

Strip the conclusions from the petition which is under attack and there is not even a skeleton left.

There is no equity in vacating a dismissal as to some defendants and not vacating dismissals of other defendants.

Eighteen months delay by a personal representative in pursuing litigation is laches not capable of excuse.

WHEREFORE, defendant prays that the ORDERS made May 12, 1964, be vacated and nullified and that the Order of Dismissal, dated March 31, 1964 be affirmed, ratified and reinstated.

Copies of this Petition for Reconsideration have been mailed to the parties indicated below.

Respectfully submitted,

Defendants.

ANSWER TO PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION and/or MOTION TO SET ASIDE DISMISSAL FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

FILED
MAY 20 1964

Comes now, defendant STATE COMPENSATION INSURANCE FUND, with this its Answer to Petition for Reconsideration and/or Motion to Set Aside Dismissal for Want of Prosecution, and in respect thereof alleges:

1. State Compensation Insurance Fund denies that the Petition for Reconsideration shows any grounds for granting of Reconsideration of the Order of March 31, 1964.

2. State Compensation Insurance Fund denies that the Petition to Set Aside Dismissal for Want of Prosecution shows any grounds for doing so.

3. And for a further separate answer and affirmative defense to all claims asserted by petition in the above entitled matter, State Compensation Insurance Fund alleges that all said claims are barred by the provisions of Sections 5400 to lungs over a period of many years. Several employers and insurance carriers filed an Answer.

Applicant took no steps to bring the case to hearing and on or about September 29, 1961, certain defendants filed a Petition to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution. On November 29, 1961, Dismissal for Want of Prosecution was issued as to those certain defendants. On December 1, 1961, State Compensation Insurance Fund filed a Petition to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution. A Notice of Intention to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution dated December 8, 1961 was issued by the Industrial Accident Commission, George W. Lane, Referee. Written objection was to be made within 15 days from date of service. On December 27, 1961, (19 days later) applicant's attorney filed an objection to Notice of Intention to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution. On June 20, 1962, another Notice of Intention to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution was served by the Industrial Accident Commission. On July 3, 1962, the State Compensation Insurance Fund renewed its request for a Petition to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution. On July 11, 1962, the applicant's attorney filed an objection to Notice of Intention to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution. On August 3, 1962, the case was set for hearing on October 11, 1962. By letter of October 8, 1962, the applicant's attorney informed the Industrial Accident Commission that Mr. Streitherst had been confined to Brookside Hospital seriously ill. On October 11, 1962, applicant's attorney appeared and stated that the applicant was then hospitalized in what appeared to be a terminal condition.

the case was ordered dismissed for failure of prosecution.

CONTENTIONS

1. The claim of Jacqueline Claney is barred by the Statute of Limitations as provided by Labor Code Sections 5400 to 5412, inclusive, and particularly by Labor Code Section 5406, which provides:

> "5406. The period within which may be commenced proceedings for the collection of the benefits provided by Article 4 or Chapter 2 of Part 2 of this division is one year from:
> (a) The date of death where death occurs within one year from date of injury; or
> (b) The date of last furnishing of any benefits under Chapter 2 of Part 2 of this division, where death occurs more than one year from the date of injury; or,
> (c) The date of death, where death occurs more than one year after the date of injury and compensation benefits have been furnished.
> No such proceedings may be commenced more than one year after the date of death, nor more than 240 weeks from the date of injury."

Leo J. Streithorst died on October 15, 1962. No compensation benefits have been furnished. No award has been made. More than 240 weeks have passed since the date of injury alleged to be July 21, 1959 (See petitioners' Application, Case 60 SF-192-145) Ruiz v. I.A.C. (1955) 45 Cal. 2d 403, 289 P. 2d 229, 20 CCC 265. State Compensation Insurance Fund v. I.A.C. (1958) 23 CCC 177.

2. Only persons aggrieved directly or indirectly, by a final Order, Decision or Award of the Commissioner or proceedings at the time of filing of the Petition for Reconsideration and/or Motion to Set Aside Dismissal for Want of Prosecution. At the time of the filing of the petition, Jacqueline Clancy was not substituted in place and stead as the personal representative and next of kin of L. J. Streithorst, the applicant. Jacqueline Claney had no status as a party to the proceedings. Since no party can petition for reconsideration after 20 days following Dismissal for Want of Prosecution, Jacqueline Claney is now barred by the Statute of Limitations. Labor Code Section 5903.

3. Labor Code Section 5900 et. seq. provides for the means of reconsideration from an Order or Decision of a referee, Section 5903 provides:

> "5903. At any time within twenty days after the service of any final order, decision or award made and filed by a commissioner or a referee granting or denying compensation, or arising out of or incidental thereto, any person aggrieved thereby may petition for reconsideration upon one or more of the following grounds and no other:
> (a) That by such order, decision, or award made and filed by a commissioner or a referee, the commission acted without or in excess of its powers.
> (b) That the order, decision, or award was procured by fraud.
> (c) That the evidence does not justify the findings of fact.
> (d) That the petitioner has discovered new evidence material to him, which he could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the hearing.
> (e) That the findings of fact do not support the order, decision, or award.
> Nothing contained in this section shall limit the grant of continuing jurisdiction contained in sections 5803 to 5805 inclusive."

In the absence of an allegation of

4. Petitioner fails to distinguish a petition for reconsideration from a petition to reopen and fails to give some indication to justify a reopening of the case. Petitioner has not alleged any ground to reopen this case and by the facts shown therein it is clear that the petitioner or petitioner's counsel, or both, have exercised a lack of diligence in bringing the case to hearing. See e.g. Consolidated Western Steel v. I.A.C., (1962) 205 Cal. App. 2d 275, 27 CCC 159; U.S. Pipe & Foundry Company v. I.A.C., supra.

(a) It required more than one and one-half years for the applicants to get the case to hearing. Application was filed on March 4, 1960 and hearing was finally set for October 11, 1962. During this period, Dismissal for Want of Prosecution was granted to several defendants.

(b) As long ago as July 11, 1962, applicant's attorney claimed to have the alleged medical evidence needed to prosecute his case. (See Objection to Notice of Intention to Dismiss for Want of Prosecution, dated July 11, 1962)

(c) Dated December 8, 1961, Notice of Intention to Dismiss within 15 days if no written objection be made was served by the Industrial Accident Commission through Mr. George W.

another objection (July 11, 1962) finally filing medical reports that dated from May of 1961.

(d) Applicant's attorney actually knew the location (Brookside Hospital) of Mr. Streithorst during Mr. Streithorst's terminal illness. It seems inconceivable that applicant's attorney would not inquire as to his aged client's health. (See petitioner's attorney's letter to the Industrial Accident Commission dated October 8, 1962.)

(e) At the hearing of October 11, 1962 applicant's attorney knew the applicant was seriously ill and at the time had actual or constructive knowledge that the applicant's condition was terminal. Applicant, L. J. Streithorst, died on October 15, 1962 at age 72. Notwithstanding, over one and one-half years have elapsed before applicant's attorney attempted to bring this case to termination.

(f) As provided by the Labor Code, applicant's attorney had ample time to object to the Notice of Intention to Dismiss ordered by the Industrial Accident Commission, George that autopsy findings confirm applicant's original claim that he was disabled because of asbestosis, (but this man died of carcinoma). The alleged autopsy findings would not constitute the discovery "new evidence" upon which reconsideration will lie even if the same were timely. Labor Code Section 5903. (d) "Tender of merely new cumulative evidence does not constitute valid ground for reconsideration." I.A.C. Rule 10870 (f) See Clendaniel v. I.A.C. (1941) 17 Cal. 2d 659, 111 P. 2d 314, 6 CCC 85.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully prayed that the Petition for Reconsideration and/or Motion to Set Aside Dismissal for Want of Prosecution be denied.

Copies of this Answer to Petition for Reconsideration and/or Motion to Set Aside Dismissal for Want of Prosecution have been mailed on the persons and addresses shown below.
