DEFENDANT RAPID-AMERICAN CORPORATION'S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO PLAINTIFFS'
INTERROGATORIES AND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION

TO: Plaintiffs, by and through their counsel of record, Russell W. Budd, Baron & Budd, The Centrum, 3102 Oak Lawn, Suite 1100, Dallas, Texas 75219.

Defendant Rapid-American Corporation ("Rapid") by and through its attorneys of record, subject to and without waiver of Rapid's Special Appearance to Present Motion Objecting to Jurisdiction, serves and files this its Responses and Objections to Plaintiff's Interrogatories and Request for Production as follows:

I.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Rapid objects to all of the interrogatories and requests for production and serves and files its objections and responses subject to and without waiver of Rapids Special Appearance to Present Motion Objecting to Jurisdiction filed in this case. Rapid objects generally to the Interrogatories and Request for Production to the extent that they call for information protected by the attorney\client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, and the investigative privilege.

Rapid objects to the interrogatories and requests for production on the grounds that the specific interrogatories contain words or phrases susceptible to various and conflicting interpretations. Consequently, responses to many of the interrogatories call for speculation on the part of Rapid. Rapid will respond to any ambiguous interrogatory based upon its reasonable interpretation of the particular interrogatory.

Rapid objects to the interrogatories and requests for production on the grounds that certain specific interrogatories are duplicative or overlapping of certain other interrogatories and duplicative of the Master Set of Interrogatories already served upon Rapid. Hence, answers or documents responsive to one interrogatory may also be responsive to several other interrogatories, making the categorization of those answers and documents unduly burdensome and oppressive. To the extent the interrogatories and requests for production are duplicative of the Plaintiffs' Master Set of Interrogatories in Dallas cases, Rapid incorporates by reference as if fully set forth herein its most recently filed responses and objections to such discovery, along with the Blaney Affidavit attached thereto.

Defendant further objects to the definitions for the reason that such definitions are overly broad and unduly burdensome. Specifically, Rapid objects to the definitions of "Defendant," "You," "Your," and "Your company," for the reason that the definition is vague, overly broad, unduly burdensome, and imposes a burden upon defendant heavier than is required by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Notwithstanding such objection, Rapid does not now possess, nor has it ever possessed sufficient information to respond to the interrogatories with respect to alleged predecessors. Hence, each response indicated herein speaks only to Rapid and information known to Rapid. Rapid further objects to the interrogatories under Rule 168(5) of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure because the interrogatories require more than thirty answers.

II.
