Thanks Enesta.

Is there a date on which the report will be made publicly available?

All best,

Hi Andrea, attributable to an EPA spokesperson:

In accordance with EO 13783 and OMB's implementing guidance, EPA will be submitting its report to the White House and making it publicly available.

Hello,

I'm a producer working with Al Jazeera English's U.S. focused documentary program Fault Lines. Would it be possible to get a copy of EPA's final report to the White House regarding the review of regulations and policies that burden the development of domestic energy resources, and plans to alleviate or eliminate them, as mandated in the President's EO 13783? I understand that it has been submitted this week.

Many thanks,
andrea
