If those don't work, there is also a smaller, older underground mine 45 minutes from Sydney. However, there is no above ground option there.

Also, our head of Australian operations is part of the dinner on Monday. So, I think he will have the opportunity to talk and meet with the Administrator.

Thanks

Ray,

These are wonderful options. Exploring with my COS this afternoon. What about possibilities of a meeting/round table/site visit in Sydney on Monday?

Thank you,
Millan

Millan--

Thanks for talking yesterday. Here is a draft itinerary for Sunday. The mine is open on Sunday, but there are not any commercial flights that would get us there and back. We are looking at the availability of a charter. A drive will undoubtedly be too long.

There's a nice wine vineyard in the area so another idea is to have the Administrator come out Sunday afternoon to tour, stay overnight, and then head back to Sydney early on Monday morning. Thoughts?

Thanks
