Re: Nevada Power Company v. Monsanto Company, et al.
USDC, District of Nevada Case CV-S-89-555-LDG (LRL)

Dear Peggy,

During last week's deposition of Gene Matteucci, Ralph Bradley made several objections based on the attorney-client privilege and instructed Mr. Matteucci not to answer. At that time, Ralph indicated that Nevada Power may file a motion for protective order regarding those objections. However, after considering relevant federal rules and case law as well as the procedure followed by all parties during other depositions in this case, Nevada Power has concluded that it is Westinghouse's burden to file a motion to compel if you feel you are entitled to additional responses.

Sincerely,

BRADLEY & MERRELL
