Re: Nevada Power Company v. Monsanto Company, et al.
USDC, District of Nevada Case CV-S-89-555-LDG (LRL)

Dear Rick:

This is just a letter to confirm in writing what I spoke with you about earlier today. Due to a stipulated extension signed by Nevada Power and the Defendants on Friday, July 30, 1993, the new terms of the expert discovery are as follows:

Nevada Power will disclose its experts and their anticipated testimony on August 20, 1993 and the defendants will begin deposition of Nevada Power experts on August 27, 1993. The period for depositions of Nevada Power experts will run through October 1, 1993. If you could let me know what dates during that time period are acceptable for you, I would appreciate it. I already have written down that you will be unavailable from September 1st through the 15th.

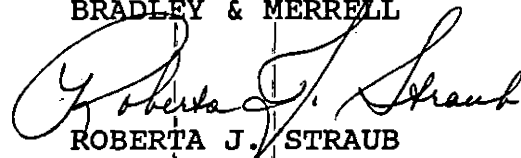

Under cover of this letter, I am also sending you a copy of the defendants' experts which were listed last year as part of a preliminary disclosure. Some of the names on this list have changed by now, I am sure, but until the defendants must disclose their experts in final form, I would be guessing as to which names were dropped. If you have information on any of these people, we would appreciate your input.

Richard Ellis, Ph.D.

As a reminder, if you think of any areas in which you would particularly like to see documents, please let me know, and I will try to get them to you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

BRADLEY & MERRELL
