Q Mr. Thomas, you testified that you weren't involved in the warning process or developing the warning label for Kaylo; is that right?

A No. In fact, I never seen one.

BY MR. McGOWAN:

Q You were not in marketing with OCF at the time; I am talking about the late '50s, mid '60s?

A No.

Q Do you consider yourself an expert in drafting warnings?

A No.

Q Were you involved in the discussions regarding whether to put a warning on Kaylo?

A Not specifically. I mean, I wasn't responsible for it, but I think fiberglass felt they needed a warning in relation to the other things that were happening, going on at the time.

BY MR. SMITH:

Q To your knowledge, did they put a warning on it?

A Just by -- I haven't seen it.
